The hotel is located about 20 minutes from the track and transportation for the riders staying at the property will be provided. The transportation will depart an hour and 30 minutes before start time each day and will depart 30 minutes after events have concluded at the track. This will include practice days (Monday and Tuesday) and competition days (Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday). Once the schedule is finalized by the UCI, we will have more definitive times to announce.

All meetings and distributions of jersey's, number plates, etc. will take place at the NH Collection Medellín Royal. Times for the meetings will be announced as we get closer to the event and the official schedule is released by the UCI.
